

For Immediate Release

October 17, 2008

Contact: Lori M. Alba
 Director of Marketing
 D-A-S Construction Co.
 PH: (216) 662-5577 ext. 115
 Fax (216) 662-1793
 Email: lalba@dascon.com

D-A-S CONSTRUCTION CO. TO RECEIVE
OHIO HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICE AWARD

Cleveland, October 17, 2008 — The Ohio Historical Society has announced that House of Blues Cleveland will receive a “2008 Ohio Historic Preservation Office Award”. The award was based on the rehabilitation and adaptive use of the former Woolworth store located at 4th and Euclid in downtown Cleveland, Ohio.

D-A-S Construction Co., who served as the general contractor for the project, will be presented the award along with project partners MRN Limited Partnership, Cooper Carry, Inc., Benjamin D. Rickey & Co., City Architecture, and House of Blues at the Ohio Historic Preservation Office Awards Luncheon presentation ceremony on November 1, 2008 in Columbus, Ohio.

“We truly enjoyed working on the House of Blues project and are honored to be recognized for the part we played in rehabilitating the Cleveland landmark”, stated Jeff Troxell, President of D-A-S Construction Co. “Working together with MRN Limited Partnership, Cooper Carry, Inc., Benjamin D. Rickey & Co., City Architecture, and House of Blues was a rewarding experience and we’re delighted the entire project team is being recognized for their individual and collective efforts on the project.”

Founded in 1986, D-A-S Construction Co. is a full-service commercial construction firm offering a diverse range of service. The company employs nearly 100 highly skilled professionals and also operates an in-house customized cabinetry and millwork production center.

###